

August Online Course Registration Is Open

It's time to prepare and gather a bountiful harvest for the 2015-2016 school year by registering for an eNet Online Professional course! eNet's courses incorporate Colorado Teacher Effectiveness standards, support project based learning and provide outstanding resources and apps. Connect, collaborate and share ideas with teachers from around the state and the world.

eNetLearning can develop a customized professional development solution for your school or district. Are you looking for a specific course that you would like for your entire district to take? Are you needing a specific date or time? We can meet your professional development/training needs. Contact Carolyn Gardner or Dan Morris for more information: carolyngardner@enetlearning.org or danmorris@enetlearning.org eNetLearning and the Colorado BOCES Association are offering teachers 10% off course registration fees using this code: BOCES4555. (No discount for optional graduate credit fees through Adams State University.)
