

JUNE 2023 - Leaping

Issues and Trends in Today's Educational Leadership

eNetLearning

Ahead

Announcing a New Course...

This course provides an interactive e-learning experience to support today's educational challenges. Participants will explore how to be a true leader who fosters a dynamic learning environment that leverages technology. You will explore examples of best practices, examine leadership behaviors, and develop strategies to be that leader. Extension activities will provide opportunities to explore in-depth topics of interest with other leaders.

Leaping
Forward

It is our mission to provide our teachers and students with a positive, safe, and engaging environment for teaching and learning. Share this information with your colleagues. We will continue to add even more new courses soon.
